About the game:

Chess is a two-player board game. It is occasionally referred to as international chess or Western chess to differentiate it from analogous games such as xiangqi (Chinese chess) and shogi (Japanese chess).

Rules and Regulations of the event:

1. Rules of the Chess Federation of India shall apply to the Inter-University Chess Tournament.
2. The tournament will be played according to the Swiss Method (nine rounds).
3. The Chess clocks shall be used if available.
4. A team may consist of a maximum of six players (including two reserve players) but only four players shall be allowed to participate each playing against the other of the same status in order of ranking:
 1. There shall be no restriction to including women players in the Chess Team.
5. Each department shall clearly state the ranking order of its team while sending the entry. The reserve shall be ranked at the bottom.
6. In the event of inability of a playing member to participate, the ranking order shall be changed in such a way that only the player following him in the ladder takes his place and so on. No player shall be replaced during the course of the tournament.
7. Each team is required to play through the entire tournament. However, if a team is forced by circumstances beyond its control to withdraw from the tournament, the treatment of any un-played matches, for the purposes of scoring, shall be settled by the Chief Arbiter and the Organizing Secretary.
8. The first session of play shall be six hours with two time controls: 40 moves in the first two hours, then 20 moves in one hour, with accumulation of time before the first adjustment. Not more than two games will be played a day including the adjourned games. The adjourned games shall be played according to schedule. All adjourned games must be completed before the start of the last round of the tournament. In the last round, games not finished at the end of the first session are adjourned and, after a break of two hours, played to the finish.
